| Interviewer's instructions | Interviewer Instruction: Read the following text.This survey is called the Generations and Gender Survey. It is about topics related to children, partners, parents, work and everyday life. The aim is to study what factors influence family formation, having children, and relations between younger and older generations. The study is part of an international programme co-ordinated by the UN Economic Commission for Europe. Your participation is voluntary, but it is very important because you represent many other people. We will hold the information you give us in the strictest confidence and use it only for statistical processing. It would also be better if we could have this interview without others being present, if possible. If you have any questions, please let me know. |

| Interviewer's instructions | Interviewer Instruction: Read the following text.This survey is called the Generations and Gender Survey. It is about topics related to children, partners, parents, work and everyday life. The aim is to study what factors influence family formation, having children, and relations between younger and older generations. The study is part of an international programme co-ordinated by the UN Economic Commission for Europe. Your participation is voluntary, but it is very important because you represent many other people. We will hold the information you give us in the strictest confidence and use it only for statistical processing. It would also be better if we could have this interview without others being present, if possible. If you have any questions, please let me know. |

| Notes              | This variable indicates the age of the female in the relationship if the respondent says that they are currently in a relationship. If the respondent is female then the respondents age is used (aage.) If the respondent is male and in a relationship with a female then their age is derived depending on the nature of the relationship. For a resident partner the age was copied from the Household grid (ahg5_); for a non resident partner the age was calculated as: year of interview MINUS question 311 (variable a315y). Rs with non-resident partners are coded with "999 - not applicable/no response", when variable a315y is not available in the dataset. Note that this variable does not have a value for same-sex partnerships. |
